

Proclamation

The City of North Miami, Florida is pleased to issue this proclamation in honor of

Energy Efficiency Day

Whereas, the city has implemented numerous policies relating to energy efficiency including within the Climate Change Element of its Comprehensive Plan.

Whereas, energy efficiency is the art of getting the same or better performance using less energy – all while cutting utility bills for residential, business, and industrial customers; and

Whereas, reliable, affordable energy is vital to our economic prosperity and energy efficiency is the most productive and cost-effective way to meet our energy needs; and

Whereas, implementing clean energy policies and programs helps boost economic opportunities and job creation while continuing to move toward a sustainable future; and

Whereas, cutting energy waste saves U.S. consumers billions of dollars on their utility bills annually, up to $500 per household from appliance efficiency standards alone; and

Whereas, more than 2.2 million Americans work in the energy efficiency sector in local, well-paying, clean energy jobs that can't be outsourced and increasing efficiency will create more of them; and

Whereas, smarter energy use reduces the amount of electricity we need to power our lives, which helps avoid power plant emissions that can harm our health, pollute our air, and warm our climate; and

Whereas, energy efficiency can continue to contribute to our energy efficiency efforts by learning about participating in our energy efficiency day; and

Whereas, a nationwide network of energy efficiency groups and partners has designated October 5th as the nation's second annual Energy Efficiency Day; and

Whereas, together the residents of the city of North Miami can continue to contribute to our sustainability efforts by learning more about energy efficiency and practicing smarter energy use in their daily lives; and

Now, therefore, in consideration of the foregoing, I, Dr. Smith Joseph, Mayor of the city of North Miami, on behalf of the city Council and residents, do hereby proclaim Thursday, October 5th, 2017, to be in the city of North Miami, and urge all residents to join us in supporting our clean energy goals and moving toward greater energy efficiency now and in the future.

Dr. Smith Joseph
Mayor

City of North Miami
